Mrs. Sandon's Social Studies Class

We are moving on to Europe for the next three weeks in Social Studies. The studies will be picking out a country in Europe to study and present a powerpoint slide presentation to the class. I'm sure these presentations will be knowledgeable and fun to watch! Ask your young person next week what country they have chosen.

Veteran's Day Assembly

There will be 3 separate grade level assemblies on Thursday, November 10th to honor our past and present Veterans. The 6th Grade Band will perform during 3rd period on Thursday, November 10th. They will need to wear their black and white uniform for the assembly, so they should come to school already dressed in concert attire. Band students will be dismissed during 2nd period to assemble their instruments and prepare for the program. Students should talk to their teachers to find out if they will miss any work 2nd period. All 6th Grade Band students should be practicing their parts for America the Beautiful and Magna Carta March in preparation for the Veteran's Day assembly.
