

The Center

for Humanities and Performing Arts

1702 Main Street
Davenport, IA 52803-4845

563.326.4432
www.davenportschools.org/young

The Center Admission Policy and Application Instructions

Please read the enclosed information carefully. Both the parent and the student must sign the bottom of the application. For assistance in completing this application, Call 563.326.4432. Teacher recommendation forms are available upon request through JB Young's office or by visiting <<http://www.davenportschools.org>>.

Any student in good standing who has the interest and ability to perform at the academic and specialized levels of the Center for Humanities and Performing Arts is eligible to apply for admission.

It is the parent(s) and student's responsibility to ensure receipt of the application and the necessary materials by JB Young Intermediate School. Please note the checklist for applying.

CHECKLIST FOR FILING THE APPLICATION:

- Submit a 2-5-page essay written by the student, typed. The topic must be "Why The Center for Humanities and Performing Arts at JB Young is My Choice."
- Submit a copy of your most recent report card. This will also document attendance.
- Submit a copy of ITBS scores for the most recent year.
- Submit three recommendation forms from three teachers. One recommendation from language arts, music, or art is required.
- Submit a portfolio of student work (3-5 samples). Suggested samples include visual materials, reports (original writing and research), video presentations, a computer-generated project, and original poetry or original stories. Do NOT include worksheets.
- Submit the completed application signed by parent/guardian and student.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION:

Essay	30%	Attendance	5%
Grades	10%	Recommendation Forms	10%
ITBS	15%	Portfolio of Student Work 30%	30%
		(including performances)

A MINIMUM SCORE OF 80% IS REQUIRED TO BE CONSIDERED FOR ACCEPTANCE.

Deliver or mail completed materials to:

JB Young Intermediate
1702 Main Street
Davenport, IA 52803-4811